8/31/72 One of the more fascinating aspects of John Kifner's long NYT 8/19 piece, "Informer Appears Key to NS Case" is the parallel, your p. 2, col. 3, with the Lackwood leggations about San Diego. If am I not mistaken, these had not been published at the time referred to. Emotional illnes another consistent erecruitment factor in selection of finks. Interesting that of all available federal prosecutors, that of the Berrigan case is the one assigned this. They have to be serious and to be seeking more than convictions. Legal precedents in the drive to ake repression=law=justice=national need. Thanks, HW
